Castle Rock

The Bluetones

Yesterday has gone, but time is on my side When I'm on my own, I find a place to hide You're rushing through my head You're seeping through my skin

Heaven feels so close, it doesn't feel so late Underneath these stars, well I don't know my name I'm lying in your arms I'm lying to your face And right before my eyes You turned and walked away

One thing she can't do Is tell me what I'm trying to prove And what to say to you I'll be straight with you I think I might be losing my way Because you left me there for dead I don't ever think I'll get over you

One thing she can't do Is tell me what I'm trying to prove And what to say to you I'll be straight with you I think I might be losing my way
