

Can You Believe It

The Bolshoi

Here is a young man who lives around the corner
He has solutions to everything
And if you ask him he can tell you what your problem is
Of course you'll never understand him

Chorus:

Can you believe it?
Can you believe it?
Can you believe it?

Refrain 1:

Dancing in his bedroom
Waiting for the film crew
Takes pity on the world
They don't understand like he do

Refrain 2:

He's always telling stories
Trying to wax lyrical
He never likes to think of things as... physical

He saw a film about an intellectual visionary
A man who could inspire, A man who could change
He went to town to buy himself a dictionary
He held a meeting but nobody came
