

Barbie Got Killed

The Bones

Barbie was a blonde babe in the city of L.A.
She was a popular high school beauty and cheerleader in the last grade
But Barbie was no angel, she was doing dope
Some crack, some speed, some LSD, some hashish and some coke

Barbie's gone, she won't come home
Her wasted life is no concern to me
Teenagebeauty dead and gone
She's never never never coming home

End of the semester she was going to the prom
Tragedy happened, she's never coming home
Lying in an alley, the body's all apart
Just a fuckin' pile of meat, no kidneys and no heart

Barbie's gone, she won't come home
Her wasted life is no concern to me
Teenagebeauty dead and gone
She's never never never coming home

She was shot in the back of the head
She was shot and now she's dead
Blood and brains all over the place
No head, no face

Barbie bit the dust now she's six feet below
Victim of a violent world, dead in a slaughtershow
Killed for fun by a crazy man just to please his needs Shot her, stripped her, raped her, ripped her and left her in the street

Barbie's gone, she won't come home
Her wasted life is no concern to me
Teenagebeauty dead and gone
She's never never never coming home

Coming home
Coming home
She won't come home
