The Bones

Hey man what ya trying to be now,
Can\'t you see the one you want to see
Some saying how to act, girl saying what to wear
Don\'t you wanna be yourself no matter what, no matter where Do you wanna carry on doing what others want you to

All you wanna do,
Is to live your life the way you want to do
All you wanna do,
Has been taken away, stolen away from you

Looking back, there were promises made then
Things that was said man
Searching for the friends that made you
The things that you did then
What ever happened to the guy you used to love
The one that used to care
So far away from yourself, from your friends
From your path from your life style

All you wanna do,
Is to live your life the way you want to do
All you wanna do,
Has been taken away, stolen away from you
