The Bones

Your nightmare, my reality
I met the pompom-girl down at Rockaway Beach
Alright, we were getting high
Backseat wrestling in a dead-end street
She bit my neck and sucked the life outta me
Alright, really sucked me dry

Why did you have to set my girl you had to set my girl on fire?
Why did you have to set my girl you had to set my girl on fire?

Fishnet-stockings, seven inch high heels
A coffin party with my cemetery queen
Alright! In a ring of fire
Time-to-die-boogie in the midnight fog
She\'s makin\' me howl like a horny devil dog
Alright! Baby let\'s go wild

Why did you have to set my girl you had to set my girl on fire?
Why did you have to set my girl you had to set my girl on fire?
Why did you have to set my girl you had to set my girl on fire?
Why did you have to set my girl you had to set my girl on fire?
Why did you have to set my girl you had to set my girl on fire?
Why did you have to set my girl you had to set my girl on fire?

Let me tell you about that special feeling
To see your rotting face smiling at me
Alright! It really makes me wild
I would do anything to keep this girl
I\'m gonna kick some ass, I\'m gonna rule this world
Alright! Yeah Worldwide

Why did you have to set my girl you had to set my girl on fire?
Why did you have to set my girl you had to set my girl on fire?
Why did you have to set my girl you had to set my girl on fire?
Why did you have to set my girl you had to set my girl on fire?
