

Memphis '77

The Bones

Back in \'77 baby, I couldn\'t take no more
I remember it like it was yesterday, I was pissed and I was bored
That stinkin\' life just scared me
I challenged death for a romance
Well, takin\' care of business
And I kicked everybody\'s ass

I never left the building, they found me on the floor
The world just screamed - "The King is dead, he won\'t come back no more!"
I cruised down the lonely highway with a big smile on my face
Yeah I screwed you all
I fucked the whole human race

Just leave it, leave it, leave it
Leave it, let it go
Forget this case, yeah fuck the truth
I won\'t come back no more
Another great rock\'n\'roll swindle
My middle finger in the air
To this world of stupid low lives
I guess you\'ll never understand

And to this world of stupid low lives
I guess you\'ll never understand
And to this world of stupid low lives
I guess you\'ll never understand
