

She Hates Me (Yeah Yeah Yeah)

The Bones

Cruisin\' low, all alone
Once again, oh God I need a miracle
I wonder why, I\'m wasting time
For every day you love me less, yeah
You were here but never meant to stay
My bad luck charm became a ball and chain
A chicken race, now I see the light
A 50 ton truck versus me on my bike

Every time I really want you
Every time I really need you

Ain\'t no doubt, I\'m out of bounds
It\'s all a drag, but I can\'t get enough
Light \'em up, but shut me down
See if I care
Wrong side of another day
Let\'s even the score, let it go my way
You shake my dreams and I know I\'m suck
So back to the facts that I\'m shit outta luck

Every time I get stood up
Never bored, though I\'m torn
It\'s all a blast, I can\'t get enough
The God of wisdom, good looks and cash had a bad, bad day while creating me fast

Every time I get stood up
Every time I get stood up
Yeah, every time I get stood up
Every time I really want her
Every time I really need her
She hates me, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
