

Stuck In the Mud

The Bones

Woke up again in my boots this morning
Don\'t know exactly where I am

I hear the angels singing
I think they sing my song
I see a dead man coming
I think he comes my way

I try to get up, but I\'m down and I try to figure out what happened last night at the bar
I can\'t think, I can\'t speak
Oh God, please fix me a drink

I here the angels singing
I think they sing my song
I see a dead man coming
I think he comes my way

I here the angels singing
I think they sing my song
I see a dead man coming
Coming my way

Can\'t walk, can\'t breathe, can\'t talk
My dream, my nightmare, my life
So take what you can and leave me be

Well I hear the angels singing
I know they sing my song
I see a dead man coming
I know he comes my way

I hear the angels singing
I know they sing my song
And I see a dead man coming
I know he comes my way
