

I've bribed a gypsy fortune teller
I've stole her crystal ball
I've put a million nails into a voodoo doll
I've spent a night with the Devils wife
Been playing cards with God
Salvation knockout contract signed in blood
Therapy just like russian roulette
And I curse the day we met

Wheel of misfortune is spinning for me
I'm stumbling to an almighty beat
I'm twisting squirming while kissing the dices
Faking my own destiny

Lobotomy with a loaded gun
Still waiting for a sign
I'm wrestling the Beaper all the time
I flip the double sided coin
I hang out burning blue
I stare at porno polaroids of you
Therapy just like russian roulette
And I curse the day we met

Wheel of misfortune is spinning for me
I'm stumbling to an almighty beat
I'm twisting and squirming while rolling the dices
Faking my own destiny

Wheel of misfortune is spinning for me
I'm stumbling to an almighty beat
I'm twisting and squirming while kissing the dices
The light of this world ain't for me
