The Bones

I've bribed a gypsy fortune teller I've stole her crystal ball I've put a million nails into a voodoo doll I've spent a night with the Devils wife Been playing cards with God Salvation knockout contract signed in blood Therapy just like russian roulette And I curse the day we met

Wheel of misfortune is spinning for me I'm stumbling to an almighty beat I'm twisting squirming while kissing the dices Faking my own destiny

Lobotomy with a loaded gun Still waiting for a sign I'm wrestling the Beaper all the time I flip the double sided coin I hang out burning blue I stare at porno polaroids of you Therapy just like russian roulette And I curse the day we met

Wheel of misfortune is spinning for me I'm stumbling to an almighty beat I'm twisting and squirming while rolling the dices Faking my own destiny

Wheel of misfortune is spinning for me I'm stumbling to an almighty beat I'm twisting and squirming while kissing the dices The light of this world ain't for me
