

Martin, Doom! It's Seven O'clock

The Boo Radleys

Get out of bed,
Don't forget what it was you said
Hey boy I hear you callin'
But it's too early morning

The world is waitin' just for you
I know, I know it is
The world is waitin' just for you
Get out of bed,

Don't forget what it was you said
Oh my, I must be dreamin'
My arms and legs are screamin'
The world is waitin' just for you

I know but not today
The world is waitin' just for you
The day that you've been waiting for
You might as well you've nothing left to lose

I know that it's still dark outside
Get out of bed, boy where's your pride
And I know what you want
To take my life have me serve you
But I might as well go
'Cause you need me more than I do
