

Enjoy your worries you may never have them again

The Books

"Eagle."

"Fault"

"Gentlemen, good luck."

"65 Thursday."

'Because I just, he kept calling me at night, all hours of the night, calling my husband, my brother, calling me every day; he's after me, and I I was devastated I was without a job, without a salary, I was trying to get unemployment and I was told it first kicks in after a few weeks, and I was busy looking for another job, and I also have a heart condition, and I told him I have a heart condition, I said, Here take a few dollars, I'm sorry this happened to you, just but just leave me alone, I'm not the person who, deposited the check.

"I love you. I LOVE you."

"Rainbow. All the music is the rainbow."