

Live It Up

The BossHoss

I can't get enough. And I'm dreaming' of spreading my wings and fly into the sky.
Into a new direction, in a pair of new shoes,
I'll run like a fast-train to find my satisfaction.

I want a new 'nothing' - and I'm happy to say!
I wanna build up my castle and follow my way.
Don't want no more lies, to keep me wpbeat,
I don't wanna run, 'cause after rain will be sun...
all right!

I said, hey ho come on run,
take the cake, before it's gone
now hey ho, live it up for today!

Hey hey hey-ho, now don't you run,
no need to be No. 1,
relax, hear what I say,
you'll find you way, hey-ho anyway,
now live it up for today-ho,
Live It Up! Hey ho - Live It Up!

My frame of mind, it's golden cage - looking so good, hey, but I need more space.
I wanna break out, fly away,
free my animal and let it play.

Hey, I'm ok - with my peace of mind,
my animal found it's 'one of a kind',
I'm free in my world, like a fish in the sea,
if it stays like this, then it's fine with me...
all right!
