

Big Eyes

The Bouncing Souls

You left home for the first time when you were seventeen
Searching for a life beginning a new dream
You drove your car all night to learn your way around
Feeling so alone in a parking lot downtown
You had your love to give
So much life to live

Hey little girl don't look so sad it's not the end of the world
I've seen this film before, already know the ending
Some of the faces change but the plot it stays the same
Take my hand lets walk away

What did those big eyes see in a world where nothings free?
Your innocent beauty was slipping quietly
With every turn you frown
No one to understand
Why would you feel so down?
No one to really see what a woman you could be

Hey little girl don't look so sad it's not the end of the world
I've seen this film before, already know the ending
Some of the faces change but the plot it stays the same
You gave your heart every moment when no one cared
They made you small they couldn't make you fall

Hey little girl
Hey there little girl
Hey little girl

Hey little girl don't look so sad it's not the end of the world
I've seen this film before, already know the ending
Some of the faces change but the plot it stays the same
So take my hand...
Take my hand...
So take my hand...
Let's walk away
