

Break-up Song

The Bouncing Souls

I don't want this anymore' is all I heard her say
As I grabbed my stuff and headed out the door
With my music in my phones and my bike under my feet
Things started to look different as I got out on the street

Sometimes I see her face in the new people that I meet
We're not who we thought we were when we saw this dream
Sometimes when I just can't sleep I hear the words you said to me:

'How did you get so deep inside of me?'

I wake up and I move on
I admit the past is gone
I wake up and I refine
Moving forward to the next lifetime
I leave it all behind

Sometimes when I just can't sleep I hear the words you said to
me:

'Sometimes it takes a painful loss to realize you are free'

How did you get so deep inside of me?

How did you get so deep inside of me?
