

Infidel

The Bouncing Souls

We're under a new moon
Daylight always comes too soon
Party like an infidel
Dancing our way straight to hell

We're doing well living here in hell
Judge us any time, we don't mind

We're doing well living here in hell
Judge us any time, we don't mind

Judgment day comes at hard noon
For everybody in the room
Saints or sinners, who can tell?
Going down right where we fell

We're doing well living here in hell
Judge us any time, we don't mind

We're doing well living here in hell
Judge us any time, we don't mind

Yeah

We're doing well living here in hell
Judge us any time, we don't mind

We're doing well living here in hell
Judge us any time, we don't mind
