The Bouncing Souls

I'm driving listening to my radio, checkin out the airwaves for something to believe in,
gimme something to hold true,
gimme something to sing about.
Gimme a reason to care,
I'll sing along forever
Watered-down words covered in song trying to hide the truth That life is beautiful, and life is pain
give it to me straight, touch my heart,
I'll sing along forever.
I'll sing along forever.
I'll sing along forever.
I'm driving listening to my radio,
checkin out the airwaves for something to believe in.
Gimme something to hold true,
gimme something to sing about.
Gimme a reason to care,
I'll sing along forever
Give it to me straight, touch my heart,
I'll sing along forever.
