

Some Kind Of Wonderful

The Bouncing Souls

Sometimes I think about girls and it's funny it makes me stay inside when it's sunny things are pathetic when I'm this way missing the days and pining away it's easy to see and it's easy to say when I see people everyday but the days go by and I think and try to conjure away to find me a girl that makes the problems go away passing the days and pining away things are pathetic when I'm this way and I can see that no one is perfect why do I do this to myself
