

The Whole Thing

The Bouncing Souls

Music sounds in my ear
there are bricks for my view I hear the train pass and I'm sure that I miss you But I'll keep my head and I'll try and I know this will pass by and by

I made some coffee and I overheard the neighbors too sometimes they laugh sometimes they scream it all reminds me of you But I don't worry anyway, after all you are so far away

Sometimes sadness feels happy sometimes sadness keeps my head.
Sometimes it helps me to get by maybe I don't make no sense But I know I'm gonna try
and I know this will pass by and by

Now I know I'm gonna try
and I know this will pass by and by
