I Shall Be Released

The Box Tops

They say everything can be replaced Yet every distance is not near So I remember every face Of every man who put me here

I see my light come shining From the west down to the east Any day now, any day now I shall be released

They say every man needs protection They say every man must fall Yet I swear I see my reflection Some place so high above this wall

Standing next to me in this lonely crowd Is a man who swears he's not to blame All day long I hear him shout so loud Crying out that he was framed

Any day now, any day now I shall be released
