

Cowboys & Engines

The Boxer Rebellion

Give us vision, and quick decision,
To help us see the light.
Spouting drivel, to stupid people,
Still learning wrong from right.

Behave yourself.
Blame someone else.
A face you trust.
Just don't blame us.

Former glories, from front-page stories,
To keep the dream alive.
Stop responding, to what you say and do,
Past the point, you try.

Behave yourself.
Blame someone else.
A face you trust.
Just don't blame us.
