

Dream

The Boxer Rebellion

Don't lose your head again
I can't take that bet

And you talk all the time
What is right in your mind full of jealousy

Dream is all you ever do
Surround yourself with walls
So no one can get through

And it doesn't help you
That time, you can't turn back

And it's more than it seems
When what you want and what you need are the same thing

Dream is all you ever do
Surround yourself with walls

Lord we've got to celebrate
