

Forces

The Boxer Rebellion

Lost the plot without regard or thought
Never getting caught, never your own
Endless threats from a nervous wreck
Showing no regrets, never alone

Forces, dark forces are everywhere
They won't stop, they won't stop till you're here
These forces, dark forces are everywhere
They won't stop, they won't stop till you're here

Sly remarks, a reaction starts
When things fall apart past any doubt
Well aware, a naive grudge to bear
A deadlocked affair with our without

Forces, dark forces are everywhere
They won't stop, they won't stop till you're here
These forces, dark forces are everywhere
They won't stop, they won't stop till you're here

Don't save yourself for someone else
Don't save yourself for someone else

These things I say are meant to prove this weight I have will fall from view
