

Silent Movie

The Boxer Rebellion

Surface, take to the breeze, off hand missed deeds
Prudent motherly eye has passed me by

Build on all of your guards, hopeless die hard
Crawling low on all fours, resolve my scars

Vacant taste in your mouth, descends falls out
Silents silhouette you get, you get

Triggered break to the left, we've been mislead
Keep up fast as you can, our force commands

And I don't want to believe you put me up for release
But I just want some peace for us
