

Weapon

The Boxer Rebellion

I believe I know you better
Than you know yourself
Hard to see it's something different
Than the face of someone else
For your love my soul it withered
I was lost inside your head

You are a weapon
You are a weapon

To unify a broken arrow
On desire lost in your voice
Fell off the path that's straight and narrow
Another road without a choice

You are a weapon (it's systematic)
You are a weapon (lost in the static)
You are a weapon (It's systematic)
You are a weapon

You are a weapon and you're headed straight at me
You are a weapon breaking everything you see
You are a weapon and you're headed straight at me
You are a weapon breaking everything you see
Everything you see

I believe I know you better
I believe I know you
I believe I know you better

You are a weapon and you're aimed at me
You are a weapon destroying all I see

You are a weapon (it's systematic)
You are a weapon (lost in the static)
You are a weapon (It's systematic)
You are a weapon

You are a weapon and you're headed straight at me
You are a weapon breaking everything you see
You are a weapon and you're headed straight at me
You are a weapon breaking everything you see
Everything you see
