Invisible Man

The Breeders

He's the invisible man
Count the bubbles in your hand
The summer sites
And the southern skies

That's all that's left behind The skies, and a sweet caress He's the invisible man Catch him if you can

You're no where in site (just imagine that)
Nothing excites you (baby that's a fact)
Open your eyes
Look and you will find

That's all that's left behind...the skies
And a sweet caress
The skies, the sights
And a sweet caress
He's the invisible man
Catch him if you can

That's all that's left behind...the skies
And a sweet caress
The skies, the sights
And a sweet caress
He's the invisible man
Catch him if you can
