The Brian Jonestown Massacre

I figure it out what to say
But now that you've gone away
And everything's turned out wrong
I turned around you were gone
Girl

To my surprise
I could not be
The boy that you love
You ran away
And over me
And if I knew that
You would run
So far beyond my reach
I would have wished
That you were free

I figured it out just today
But now your so far away
And everything turned out wrong
I opened my eyes and your gone
Girl

Surprise, surprise
I did not see
That you had gone off
You ran away
And over me
And if I knew that you would run
So far beyond my reach
I would have wished that you could be
I would have wished, wished you could see
I would have wished that you were free

But man it seems cold out today
I wish it was yesterday
'Cause this day turned out wrong
And this day seems so damn long.
