The Bronx

Remnants of fire blow like sand in the night you're my only desire, you're my beacon of light
Oh where has she gone?
You're my sunset, my one regret

Oh I swear I can see her when I call out her name
Oh and sometimes I feel her when I cry out in pain
God can you hear me, please give me one more try
I'll be her guardian angel, I'll be her ears and eyes

I'll stand right by her side
You're my sunset, my one regret
All my life, my one regret
She's my sunset.

I'll stand right by your side
You're my sunset, my one regret
All my life, my one regret
She's my sunset.

I swear I'll stand right by your side
Right by your side.
