

Norteño Lights

The Bronx

Como te llamas? Como te llamas?
I swear I've seen you in my dreams.
Now on the street by chance we meet
This twist of fate is crueler than it seems

Como te llamas? Como te llamas?
Are you too beautiful to speak?
Just give me one single word
Before you turn and walk away from me

I bet your father was too protective of you
And that your mother kept you locked in your room
And all your brothers would tell you lies
(Tell you lies) The devil's in the sunrise

Cuál es tu problema? Cuál es tu problema?
Am I not good enough for you?
What can I change or re-arrange?
My heart is true, just tell me what to do

There's a devil inside her
One that fills her with pride
Love is just an annoyance
Just a thought in the side

Como te llamas? Como te llamas?
I swear I've seen you in my dreams
Now on the street by chance we meet
This twist of fate is crueler than it seems

Como te llamas? Como te llamas?
Are you too beautiful to speak?
Just give me one single word
Before you turn and walk away from me

Hey!
