

Young Bloods

The Bronx

I'm amazed how well you handle defeat for a rookie
So lay back and just continue to sleep
We'll come wake you when they're long gone

I solemnly swear to compete in the world
If nothing is ever atoned
Young blood! If given a chance, spit fire!
Young blood! Destroy the old empire!

I'm amazed the way you handle the press, like a veteran
Flies will swarm and bees will crowd for incest
They want to document all your time

I solemnly swear to compete in the world
If nothing is ever atoned
Young blood! If given the chance, spit fire!
Young blood! Destroy the old empire!
Young blood! If given the chance, spit fire!
Young blood! Empires fade, so hold onto the money that you made!

Long gone,
I solemnly swear to compete in the world
If nothing is ever atoned
Young blood! If given the chance, spit fire!
Young blood! Destroy the old empire!
Young blood! If given the chance, spit fire!
Young blood! If given the choice,
Never let them silence your voice!
