

Sadie

The Bunny the Bear

I'm burning out
And I've lost all I've cared about.
Come back to me.

Sadie, I'm thinking maybe, we could rest and dream.
This world is not enough for me.
Sadie, this may sound crazy, but I don't always dream.
I just can't fall asleep without you.

I'm counting down the days
Since I've seen your smile, your face.
Breathe for me, baby.

Sadie, I'm thinking maybe, we could rest and dream.
This world is not enough for me.
Sadie, this may sound crazy, but I don't always dream.
I just can't fall asleep without you.

Sadie, I'm thinking maybe, you would marry me.
I just can't live a day without you.
Sadie, I'm thinking maybe,
I could fall asleep with you right next to me forever.
