

So Smooth So Appealing

The Bunny the Bear

Let me see the eyes of redemption.

Here comes the fire...

My darling, forgive me for giving up too early.
The times have kept us apart.
I guess now, we'll find out just how far we can take this.

Breath just to start.
Swallow it now.

The common dilemma.
A black hole of existence.
The state of mind that left me in this room for hours...
wondering where the time went, spent biting your hands
spent emotionless in dust.
around the breeze I bend and tarnish,
I knew... I knew... I wish I knew.

So smooth...this thrill... follow your heart.

Swallow it now.

I guess now, we found out...
Just how far we could take this.
