Out In The Cold

The Business

out in the cold she fell her eyes drawn and her face pale she lost her life with that one mistake now she's sentenced to stay on her own oh she was oh so clever oh so smart now her life's been taken away she's left forever in the dark she woke up one morning as the dark was dawning only to be confronted by death she went with a man she didn't plan for him to attack and rape