pinned to the ground

The Buzzhorn

If I gave you my soul
Would it make any matter?
And if I broke all my bones
Would you put 'em back together?
If I gave you my soul
Would you see it, oh, my way?
And if I said I was wrong
Could I start on a new day?
Oh yeah

Now we get our ideas
When no words are spoken
Built it all up, now everything's broken
And deep down inside, oh, I'm pinned to the ground
When two people love without any sound
Oh yeah

So I gave you my soul, oh no
Gave you my soul, oh

So your life rolls along
For me it stands still
Say we're just friends, oh
But I never will
Now I gave you my soul
And now I'm no blinder (I can see)
When I look for my love that I'll never find, oh yeah
So I gave you my soul, oh no
Gave you my soul, oh

So I gave you my soul
Didn't make any matter
And I broke all my bones
They're laying all over
Deep down inside, oh, I'm pinned to the ground
When two people love without any sound, oh yeah