

These Are The Lies

The Cab

I don't love you, I don't need you
I don't ever wanna see you again
Cause girl I've moved on, things are perfect
I'm okay with us just being friends

Because I don't think about you
Next thing you're mad, I'm fine without you
Things stay tight but I'm not beside you, I'm moving on
No I don't cry about you
No these ain't tears in my eyes about you
Gonna be fine if I die without you
Baby I'm gone

These are the lies that I tell myself at night
These are the lies that are keeping me alive
These are the lies

I've got a new girl and she's my whole world
And I don't care if you're not sleeping alone
Cause life is so good, I'm doing so good
Don't spend hours sitting here by the phone

Because I don't think about you
Next thing you're mad, I'm fine without you
Things stay tight but I'm not beside you, I'm moving on
No I don't cry about you
No these ain't tears in my eyes about you
Gonna be fine if I die without you
Baby I'm gone

These are the lies that I tell myself at night
These are the lies that are keeping me alive
These are the lies

These are the lies [x10]

Cause the truth is
I'm about to lose it
Don't think I can do this if I'm not with you [x4]

These are the lies that I tell myself at night
These are the lies that are keeping me alive
These are the lies

These are the lies that I tell myself at night
These are the lies that are keeping me alive
These are the lies
