

With Or Without Reason

The Call

How you gonna tell your story?
Are you gonna tell it true?
Either with or without reason
Love has paid the price for you

Now how you gonna cure this feeling?
How you gonna right this wrong?
Either with or without reason
The weaker do protect the strong

Listen in your hour of comfort
Just listen in your hour of pain
Either in or out of season
The hunters still pursue the game

Oh, there's somebody waiting
Oh, there's somebody near
Oh, there's somebody waiting
Oh, there's somebody here

Now lately I've begun to wonder
Just who is talking when you speak?
Either with or without reason
The stronger still pursue the weak

Now the wisest of the fools can tell you
Anything you want to hear
Either with or without reason
These are truths you hold so dear

And oh, there's somebody waiting
Oh, there's somebody near
Oh, there's somebody waiting
Oh, there's somebody here

I dedicate this inner chamber
I dedicate this harvest toil
Either with or without reason
The language of the heart takes hold

Now don't you see that love offends us
When it rises up against this waste
Either with or without reason
Evidence of sin and grace

Oh, there's somebody waiting
Oh, there's somebody near
Oh, there's somebody waiting
Oh, there's somebody here

Oh, there's somebody waiting
Oh, there's somebody near
Oh, there's somebody waiting
Oh, there's somebody here
