Daddy's Car

The Cardigans

We took off that sunny day packed our things and went away me and friends in daddy's car to find out how summers are found a card to send from wherever we went

From Luxembourg to Rome from Berlin to the moon from Paris to Lausanne from Athens to the sun our car became a spacecraft flashing through the world crashed down in Amsterdam

We'll take off some rainy day pack our things and go away families and hotelbars to find out how summers are find a card to send to some really old friends

From Luxembourg to Rome from Berlin to the moon from Paris to Lausanne from Athens to the sun our car became a spacecraft flashing through the world crashed down in Amsterdam
