

Rise & Shine

The Cardigans

I want to be alone for a while I want earth to breathe to me
I want the waves to grow loud
I want the sun to bleed down to bleed down

See the waves go down
see the moon alone
see the world unshown
I raise my head and whisper

Rise and shine
rise and shine my sister
rise and shine
rise and shine
rise and shine
rise and shine my sister
