

Dr. Adder

The Cassandra Complex

I got the tape that you sent me, it was tied up with ribbon
Lots of scenes of sacrifice and people in prison
I threw it in the trash, it looked much better that way
I like what you got baby, but I don't like what you're giving

Give me what I want, give me what I need
Give me everything, I'm going to make you bleed

I'm having a party with two junkie whores
They smile at me sweetly, they say give me some more
So I tie them together and they start to get mad
Please come back Dr. Adder, we need you real bad

Give me what I want, give me what I need
Give me everything, I'm going to make you bleed

Personal sacrifice, personal gain
We feel our humanity when we feel our pain

Give me what I want, give me what I need
Give me everything, I'm going to make you bleed

I'm tired of living on suppressants, I don't want my hands tied
I want to open up your body and see what's inside
I'll tie you to the telephone, I'll tie you to the wall
I want to see what life is, I want to have it all

Give me what I want, give me what I need
Give me everything, I'm going to make you bleed
