

Moscow, Idaho

The Cassandra Complex

Don't look now, we're flying over
A little place that lies below
It's nothing very special, it's just a town
Called Moscow, Moscow, Idaho

Moscow, Idaho

It's not that far from here, it's not that far away
It's just around the corner, over the sea
Over the sea, over the waves
Over the sea, over the waves

Moscow, Idaho

You may not have heard of our little town
That's not surprising, no-one lives there
Anyone with any sense lives in Los Angeles
Anyone who's anyone lives in L.A.

City of angels
We're all angels

Just down the street in Moscow, Idaho
Lives a boy, prettiest boy in world
He's in love with the prettiest girl
Who lives next door, she always lives next door, in

Moscow, Idaho

That's what love is all about
In an empty town, it always lives next door
Or next door but one, let's be Frank
Let's be Frank, let's be Frank
