

Ugly

The Cassandra Complex

Why does the phone keep ringing?
Why does the phone keep ringing?
I don't wanna talk to you right now
Can't you see I'm busy?
I don't wanna talk to you right now
I got work to do

I've gotta get this thing cleaned before tomorrow
And my hands keep on shaking
And that woman keeps on crying
And the phone keeps on ringing

I'm never see the world again
All I see are flashing lights
I'm never gonna get out of here
But I don't care, because

Your world is ugly
Ugly because it made me
Ugly
Your world is ugly

I don't really wanna kill no more
But I have to stop the voices
God won't let me rest
God won't set me free, because

I am ugly

I'm stuck here in this room with a stupid woman
And a gun, and a telephone
And you outside, trying to call me
You want to talk, but I only talk to God

'Cause you are ugly
Ugly
Ugly
Ugly

But my gun is clean
Now here come the bullets
Here come the bullets
Here come the bullets
Here come the bullets
