The Casualties

No time to run, the invasions begun
Tanks rolling in with troops and bombs and guns
Families ripped apart, people on fire, screaming
Children's bodies hanging from barbed wire

AFRAID, FALLOUT, NAPALM

What do our lives have to do with their decisions?
We fall victim when they decide to fight
War for money by the sick and insane
We fall victim the rich don't have to fight
