

Manifesto

The Cat Empire

WE BELIEVE

In the grass in the trees

WE SUPPORT

Living life cause life is short

WE UPHOLD

Sky of blue sun of gold

WE MAINTAIN

On sunny days all sadness and pain be relieved

The breeze blows the leaves in the gypsy king's court

WE SUPPORT

Food and wine song and thought and when the night gets cold

WE UPHOLD

The following rules that I'll sing

To you all

We believe in melody

And harmony

And all things sweet

We sing a yum-a-yum chum

To the moon and the sun

And the rumble of the drums

And the big fat beat

We believe in the ace up the sleeve

And we shine our gold teeth

At the cats in the alleys

A flame on a match

That the wind can't catch

And when the bad guys attack

The empire strikes back
