

As The World Is Burning

The Cataracs

As the world is burning,
I am covered in your loss
Sorry, as I am bound to be
And now I do believe, that I can be someone
If you say

Something about the way you move, so divine
Slowly falling, as we slip through time
Tell me baby, Am I the man I used to be?
Oh I, Ahhh-I

All I ever wanted, la la la la la la 2x
Where you are?
All I ever wanted
And no one could take that away,
My love..my love

Living in the photograph,
A smile to last one hundred thousand years
I'd take one final glance
And hope you looking back at me somewhere, somewhere
I know I can't be sure,
why not try?
Don't you know,
It happens all the time.

I must confess,
I don't know where I--
Unless I deserve you, today.
There are no words to say,
No words to say
And I can tell you that is real,
I don't
But I, aahhh-I

All I ever wanted, la la la la la la 2x
Where you are?
All I ever wanted
And no one could take that away,
My love... my love
