The Cataracs

The other day you said you started to cry
And when I asked, you said you didn't know why
You keep it, undercover (oh!)
You keep it, undercover (huh)

When you laughed you said it, must be nice to have it
All figured out I said now I thought you realized
You keep it, undercover (oh yeah)
You keep it, undercover (ah ah)

We used to talk like lovers (in the middle of the night)
And now we're hardly friends (aye hoo hoo hoo)
Well if there's something you need (need need need need)
Don't you know, you don't got to pretend
Somewhere your probably springing

Ooh hoo hoo
Everybody's looking at you hoo hoo
What chu gonna do now baby (baby)
It's alright, I'm a hold you down

Ooh hoo hoo
Everybody's looking at you hoo hoo
What chu gonna do now baby (baby)
Flash light, I'm a hold you down

Undercover
You keep it, undercover

Now everybody say it was, best for you
But, deep inside your heart you can't decide if it's true
You keep it, undercover
You keep it, undercover (uh huh)

Well then, send you off to a, good school
You'll, learn to get along, how to play by the rules
You keep it, undercover (hey!)
You keep it, undercover (hey!)

We used to talk like lovers (in the middle of the night)
