

Turn To The Vices

The Chameleons

We're clinging together
We're clinging together
We're clinging together for ever and ever
We're singing the same songs
We're singing the same songs
We're singing the same songs they go on and on and on
Oh no no no no no
So who can we turn to?
What can we turn to?
Who can we turn to?
What can we turn to now?
We turn to the vices, embracing the vices
We turn to the vices and other niceties
Oh no no no no no
We're clinging together
We're clinging together
We're clinging together for ever and ever Amen
We're singing the same songs
We're singing the same songs
We're singing the same songs they go on and on and on
Which brings us back to zero
No no no no no no
Which brings us back to zero
No no no no no no
Oh no no no no no
In times of crisis we turn to the vices
In times of crisis we turn to the vices
In times of crisis we turn to the vices
Vices in
