Castaway Pilgrim

Unwed mother Her time has come And for you Castaway Pilgrim The owl sings His song unsung But he sings it for you Castaway Pilgrim We will find you naked and alone We will find you waiting for the sun Desert flora It breaths your name It's calling for you Castaway Pilgrim Your memory is gone Your soul is gone Like a worn out shoe Castaway Pilgrim We will find you waiting before dawn We will find you waiting for the sun Unwed mother Your time has come And for you Castaway Pilgrim The owl sings His song unsung But he sings it for you Castaway Pilgrim We will find you waiting before dawn We will find you waiting for the sun Desert flora It breaths your name It's calling for you Castaway Pilgrim And I believe what they say ... What they say about you Castaway Pilgrim We will find you naked and alone We will find you waiting for the sun
