

Abandon.

The Chariot

Is this the blessing or the curse?
Should I belong to the trend?
At least it's a tragedy that will only come once.
A choir of men sing sanctuary in faith.
Let's make them believe that they are going to live.
Madame, I don't know your name but I know your face.
Yeah, they sacrifice but its costs nothing madame.
I don't know your name but I know your face.
Is this the blessing or is the the curse?
