

A Love So Fine

The Chiffons

Oh yes, he's the darling
And I'm so glad that he'll be mine
Yesterday he said he wants me
To share a love so fine
(A love so fine)

When he smiled for me only
And his kisses are so divine
From now on I won't be lonely,
Cause we're sharing a love so fine
(A love so fine)

All the girls are jealous of him
That's not really hard to see
They would never try to love him
His love belongs to me

Our love, will last forever
And forever's a long long time
And I know no one will ever ever break up
A love so fine
(A love so fine)

Our love, will last forever
And forever's a long long time
And I know no one will ever ever break up
A love so fine
(A love so fine)

Oh yeah
(A love so fine)
Yeah yeah
(A love so fine)
Oh yeah
(A love so fine)
