

Breaks My Heart

The Chords

You're looking confused at what you see now
Getting worried about the things you think you've missed
You like looking at yourself, being part of Something that no longer exists
This won't keep in fashion
And embarrassment to keep your name
I'm now watching it fall apart in front of your eyes
In front of your eyes
And it breaks my heart, it breaks my heart

You're still talking about your ambition
How you'll make it somehow, someday
But you bought too many favours
And your life's got in your way
You can't understand no more
Just bury your head
Don't listen to a word I said, a word I said
And it breaks my heart, it breaks my heart

But no one is listening anymore
And it breaks my heart
